

Errie Ball Statue Unveiling

The community recently honored Errie Ball, 99, the Golf Pro Emeritus at Willoughby Golf Club, with a bronze bust by sculptor Geoffrey Smith. Ball is a golf legend and is the lone survivor of the players in the very first Masters Tournament in 1934. 1. Arnie Eckelman, Gerry Knebel, Errie and Maxie Ball, and Bob Kloppenborg 2. Errie Ball with sculptor Geoffrey Smith 3. Susie Speer, Errie Ball and Erling Speer

Maritime Museum's Real McCoy Rum Runner Party

The Maritime and Classic Boat Museum celebrated its new location on the first floor of the Frances Langford Pavilion with The Real McCoy Rum Runner party. 4. Ed and Karen Weinberg 5. Museum founder Rusty Sedlack and Mary Lerschvol 6. Wayne and Glenna Parris with Marcia and Lou Benson 7. Tim and Marilyn Griffin 8. Blake Capps, Michael Dadko, Lynn Graff Smith and David Pierce 9. T.J. Large, Kendall Clifford, and Linda and Randy Prange

